The front porch makes this home enjoyable for sitting out and relaxing. It's a nice, level lot with a large span of cement in the yard for outside games or entertainment, as well as a storage building and garage. From the front porch, walk into a nice-sized living room area and then back through the dining room to a large kitchen. Behind the kitchen and by the back door is a large room that could have multiple uses, such as a game room, office, etc. Three bedrooms and Two bathrooms make this home nice and enjoyable for families. Older homes with lots of older quirks, such as door knobs, are redone for modern-day enjoyment. The house is used for a bed and breakfast at the moment, and all furniture can be bought if you are interested. It is established as a solid 5-star revenue generator on Air B&B.
